THAT'S ME – AND ME!

IT WAS THE NIGHT BEFORE CHRISTMAS AND AT SANTA'S WORKSHOP AT THE NORTH POLE, SANTA, MRS. CLAUS, AND ALL HIS HELPERS WERE WORKING VERY HARD LOADING ALL THE TOYS INTO THE SLEIGH.

THE SNOW WAS FALLING, THE WIND WAS BLOWING AND CHRISTMAS EVE WAS DRAWING CLOSER. THE REINDEER WERE GETTING EXCITED BECAUSE IT WAS NEARLY TIME TO LEAVE. THE HELPERS WERE GETTING THE LAST OF THE TOYS OUT OF THE WORKSHOP. MRS. CLAUS WAS MAKING SOMETHING GOOD FOR SANTA TO EAT BEFORE HE LEFT.

THEN THE STORM STRUCK! THE REINDEERS LOOKED AT THE FAR AWAY HORIZON NERVOUSLY, FOR THEY KNEW THIS WAS GOING TO BE A VERY BAD STORM. MRS. CLAUS AND THE HELPERS TOLD SNATA HE WOULD HAVE TO WAIT A FEW HOURS UNTIL THE STORM BLEW OVER.

“THE REINDEERS AND I MUST LEAVE AT ONCE”, SANTA SAID. “IT IS VERY LATE AND CHRISTMAS WILL SOON BE HERE. BOYS AND GIRLS ALL OVER THE WORLD ARE WAITING FOR THEIR TOYS.”

AND, WITH THIS, HE SAID GOODBYE TO MRS. CLAUS AND THE HELPERS AND THEN WENT OUTSIDE TO HIS REINDEER AND SLEIGH. IT SEEMED LIKE THE WORST STORM SANTA HAD EVER KNOWN, BUT HE CHECKED THE TOYS, GOT INTO THE SLEIGH, WAVED TO MRS. CLAUS AND HIS HELPERS, AND COMMANDED THE REINDEER TO BE OFF.

IT WAS LIKE A MIRACLE! THE STORM CLOUDS BROKE AND SANTA AND HIS REINDEER WERE ABLE TO DELIVER THE TOYS ALL OVER THE WORLD, MAKING IT A MERRY CHRISTMAS FOR BOYS AND GIRLS EVERYWHERE.
